George R. Brown Convention Center
Houston, TX

COLD STORAGE

A limited number of refrigerated and freezer trailers will be available on the dock of the George R. Brown Convention Center. This storage service is offered to exhibitors on a first-come/first-served basis. Exhibitors wishing to utilize this service need to complete the “frozen or refrigerated storage” order form found in this section of the service manual, and returned to TRA no later than June 20. Space will be assigned in the order the forms are received. TRA will assume no liability for lost or stolen merchandise.

DRY STORAGE

There will be a dry storage area located in the exhibit hall for exhibitors who need to store their dry goods. Space will be limited so accommodations will be made on a first-come, first-served basis. This service is offered at no charge to exhibitors. Show Management, Texas Restaurant Association or the George R. Brown Convention Center will not be held responsible for lost merchandise.
